Recreational Workshop Well Attended

A very well attended Recreational Workshop was held in the Isabelle Sellon school in Blairmore on February 19 and 20, attended by some 35 representatives of organizations in the Pass towns. The affair was sponsored by the Recreational and Cultural Activity branch of the province of Alberta.

The affair opened on Monday evening when Mayor William Jalpe on behalf of the town welcomed the guests and introduced the two provincial representatives, Mr. Sid Moore, Southern Alberta Recreational Consultant, and Mr. Jack Riddell, Assistant Superintendent of Community Programs.

In welcoming the two provincial representatives Mayor Jalpe presented each with a copy of Blairmore's Historical Fiftieth Anniversary booklet.

In their lectures both men stressed the importance of a community realizing the ever-growing need for recreation to relieve tension, provide entertainment and to make any community a better, happier place to live.

Some of the highlights of the Educational Workshop showed that a community should first of all form a committee of interested persons who then make a survey of what facilities the town already has to provide healthful recreation. A study should then be made of how these facilities can be put into shape and then put into use through a program that would embrace every age bracket in a community.

It is also important, stated the two men, to encourage everyone in the community to take part in such a program and to show each and every person in a community that their co-operation and participation in a program is needed to make the program a successful project.

It is important to develop good leaders as decisions of a leader can change a life. Faith must be in young and old alike and suitable recreation for all age brackets must be found to relieve the state of nervous frustration; now being experienced all over the country. To exemplify their address a film "Town and Country Recreation" was shown which was much enjoyed.

Coffee and donuts served by the Blairmore Home and School Association were much enjoyed at the close of Monday's session.

On Tuesday evening discussion groups were formed and various local problems were discussed including budgeting, co-operation, publicity and other factors leading to successful recreational and cultural programs.

Both Mr. Moore and Mr. Riddell answered many questions and informed the gathering that any problem they could assist a community with they would be only too pleased to extend help.

At the close of the session a ceramics display was shown by Mrs. Gertrude Tacs of Hillcrest, and piano selections were presented by Miss Tess Thornton and Miss Louise Costigan of Blairmore. Two pupils of Mrs. Clem Jepson of Bellevue, Miss Helene Jensen and Miss Karen Quintillo entertained with folk dances.

"Mel" Cornett New Postmaster

Melville A. Cornett, well known Coleman man, was sworn in as postmaster of the Coleman post office by Mr. J. Sackville, district supervisor, of Lethbridge on February 19.

"Mel", as he is better known to all in the Pass, was born in Pincher Creek and has lived in Coleman for over 40 years.

He attended public and high schools here and during World War II served with the Canadian army from 1941 to 1945.

At present Mel is a quartermaster in the RECMEM(R) of Blairmore, and is also a member of the Coleman branch of the Legion, the Coleman Elks Lodge and the Coleman Masonic Order AF&AM. He is also the president of Coleman Credit and Savings Union, secretary of the Coleman Library, a member of the town council and is a justice of the peace.

Mr. Cornett is married and has two sons, Eddy attending school in Coleman, and Alex on the teaching staff of a Calgary school.

Mr. Cornett replaces former postmaster Frank Graham, who left town last fall to retire in Victoria, B. C.

Honor Memory of Boden-Powell

Approximately 100 parents, visitors, Cubs and Scouts attended a special meeting held in the Catholic hall on Thursday, February 22 to honor the memory of Lord Boden-Powell.

A program was presented by the Lions Group committee which included guest speakers, Mayor F. Aboussay and M. Dunford.

Investiture of several Cubs into the Scouts was the highlight of the program, along with many of the Cubs being presented with badges.

A presentation of a Boy Scout book to the Coleman Community Library was made to commemorate Boy Scout Week across the world.

After the meeting doughnuts and coffee and pop were enjoyed by all, and at this time the group committee would like to thank everyone who attended and anyone who helped in any way to make this event the proud and memorable occasion it was.

Coleman Ratepayers Hold Annual Meeting

The Coleman Annual Ratepayers meeting was held on Monday night when reports of the activities of the towns various departments were heard.

In his report, Mayor Frank Aboussay, stated that 1961 had been a year of activity and that the confidence in the future of the town had been stabilized through industrial expansion. The early part of the year saw a trailer court completed which made provision for housing fifty families of trailers which added to the towns economy. A contract was let for resurfacing all of the towns streets at a cost of some $40,000.00 leaving out only a few blocks. An extensive sidewalk program was also undertaken costing the town some $10,000.00 over the Provincial Governments $27,000.00 grant. This program was halted due to inclement weather but will be continued this Spring. He also reported that the town reservoir had been cleaned and its area enlarged. The electric light system, a town owned utility also received necessary repairs and improvements and these two utilities accounted for some $5,000.00 expenditure. The expenditure of over $50,000.00 on the above projects were paid for from the reserves in the Coleman Light and Water Co. and town accounts as well as from the years budget surpluses thus leaving the town debt free for another year.

Mayor Aboussay also stated that just before the end of the year the town purchased a large piece of property from Coleman Collieries Limited. The property includes the park which was formerly on lease, the sports field, the property along the Kaninaskis road from the top of the hill near the Horace Allen residence to the town limits as well as the cemeteries and all lands surrounding them. Purpose of purchasing the land said Mr. Aboussay was manifold as the town needed a site for a housing project and the only area that could be developed was that north of the sports field as it was within town limits and with some expenditure could be quite suitable for a select residential area as well as being near the water and light systems. The fact has already been confirmed by the signing of an agreement with the Westcoast Transmission Company for four lots to be ready for use by May first. The other part of this area will be reserved for the new school and sports field. The above plans were laid out by the Old Man River District Planning Commission and when completed will be a fine addition to the town of Coleman. In concluding his report Mayor Aboussay expressed his thanks to all departments for their fine work adding that it has been all through their efforts that the town is a well organized unit and resulting a better place in which to live.

The financial statement was then checked over and reports from the various committees were presented showing that the town had progressed very favorably during the year.

The Municipal Inspectors report was read indicating the towns business has been carried out in a very efficient manner.

Mayor Tenders Resignation

Coleman Town Council at its meeting held Tuesday, February 20th, would not accept the resignation tendered by Mayor Frank Aboussay, and as a result Mayor Aboussay will reconsider.

Mayor Aboussay tendered the resignation, feeling that he had served the community well for the past 22 years, and feels that a rest is now in order.

Council approved the moving of four homes into the new housing site north of the town park. Lots for these homes are to be sold at between $500.00 and $700.00 maximum, depending on the cost of providing roads, lights and water and surveying the lots.

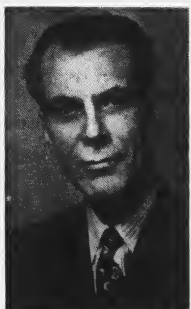

On the recommendation of Fire Chief Henry Zak, council approved the purchase of two sets of Scott Packs for the fire brigade. The Scott Packs are a new improvement type of smoke mask.

It was reported that some of the councillors had met with a representative of a Calgary engineering firm last week to discuss costs and operation of a swimming pool for Coleman and the Improvement District.

It was indicated that an open air pool, 24 feet by 55 feet to accommodate 80 to 100 persons at one time would cost in the vicinity of $38,000 to $40,000.

Figures on maintenance of a pool were also discussed but no definite costs could be established as it was not known how long a swimming season would last.

Combined total government recreational grant for Coleman and the Improvement District No. 10 who are planning on pooling their grants, would be some $27,000, and if decision to build a swimming pool is made an additional $7,000 grant would be available. Council and Improvement District representatives will meet again to discuss this matter.

Blood Donor Clinic On April 25

Arrangements are being completed this week by Mrs. Joan Dunford, Reg. N., of Coleman, and Mrs. Anna Fabro of Blairmore, to hold a Red Cross Blood Donors' Clinic in the Coleman Elks hall on Wednesday, April 25th.

Mr. A. Haley, field supervisor of the Red Cross, visited the Pass this week to start arrangements for the annual clinic.

Coleman Credit Union Hold Annual Meeting

The Coleman Savings and Credit Union marked its annual meeting at a banquet held in the Catholic hall on Saturday, February 17. At 6:30 p.m. 135 members and guests sat down to a delicious turkey supper catered to by the Catholic Women's League. President Mel Cornett, acting as chairman, gave the address of welcome and then called on out-of-town guests to rise and be introduced, after which Mr. R. Wood said "Grace". After supper all adjourned to the auditorium room for the meeting.

Reports of the various committees were presented after President Mel Cornett gave his report, which showed the Union to be operating very satisfactorily.

Leslie Owen, reporting for the Supervisory committee, explained the duties of the committee, and stressed the important role of this committee with regard to successful operation of the Credit Union.

Robert Woods satisfactorily explained the function of the Credit committee and John Owen spoke on the aspects of credit buying and costs and outlined the obligations of a co-signer.

A motion was approved by the meeting acting on the recommendation of the Board of Directors, that a dividend of three and three-quarters per cent be paid on savings and 15 per cent on participating dividends.

Assets now stand at $85,570.00, which figure was disclosed by Treasurer Anna Jones in her report.

The membership has risen by 20 members during the past year. Some discussion was held on insurance coverage on loans and savings and further enquiries will be welcomed at the office.

During the evening, T. A. Collier was called upon to receive a Credit Union citation for meritorious work he has done for the Credit Union. Mr. Collier resigned his position as secretary-treasurer due to business pressure, but it was pointed out that he has been very co-operative in all ways in assisting the executive and he has done extensive work to get the Credit Union to operate smoothly.

Isadore Raymond, who was the Coleman branch first president, and has been active since its inception in 1949, was also called upon and received a citation and purse in appreciation of the extensive efforts he has put forth through the years.

Mr. Raymond resigned last fall due to ill health. Both men ably expressed their thanks for the recognition.

An election of officers was then held when the following were elected — one year supervisory committee, Polly Snowden and Ed Krywolt; two years, Ferulo Dececco and Les Owen, and three year, John Ondrus.

One year credit committee, Robert Wood and Ernie Lant; two year, John Sikora, Jr., three year, Ferulo Berlin and John Owen.

Board of directors, three years, Mel Cornett, who was returned as president, and Guido Lant, two years, Steve Mraz and Orazio Celli and Ed Amell; one year, Harold Jones and Rudy Szansek. Mrs. Anna Jones was also returned as secretary.

After the meeting the hall was cleared and dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

OF MANY THINGS (By Ambrose Hills)

IMMATURITY

Some years ago, the philosopher Overstreet, gave us his maturity concept. It has no doubt helped many individuals on the path to progress, and has done a good deal to improve education. Nevertheless, it is true that an immature tendency still prevails in the world.

Overstreet said that human beings are born irresponsible. At the outset, he claimed, there is nothing that the helpless infant can do for itself or for anyone else. In a very real sense, said the philosopher, "the world owes it a living."

But the child is supposed to progress toward self-help. "The toddler that fumblingly begins to learn how to dress itself is in training for emotional and social maturity. Year by year, as helplessness turns into strength, the sound human being takes on a responsibility commensurate with his powers."

This concept, that as we grow we should take on additional responsibility, and cease to ask the world to wait on us is not at all popular.

Instead, immature men continue to seek ways to avoid individual responsibility. Political parties which offer to devise a system in which the State replaces the parents and provides a living for each citizen can count on a large following. Dictators reach power because of the immaturity of the citizens, who are all too willing to hand over responsibility to the leader.

Why do we remain immature?

I think it is because the joys of maturity are not understood and extolled while the comforts of immaturity have been over-sold. It is true that the journey to maturity is no picnic, that one gets bruised and sometimes frustrated and tired; but the satisfaction of growth and development, when understood, more than compensate for the hurts of the struggle.

One may attain a great degree of maturity without becoming rich or famous. A person may reach it at the lowest point in his career, when others mistakenly deem him a failure. But the individual, no matter how dire the difficulties he faces, knows that he has reached maturity if he can accept himself and the events around him and keep trying with all his capacity to live a full and rich and responsible life.

Tim Buck Visits Pass

Some 35 persons gathered in the Union hall in Blairmore Wednesday evening, February 14th to hear Canada's No. 1 Communist leader

Tim Buck give reports of his trips to Russia, China and Cuba. The meeting was photographed by free-lance photographer Robert Crone, while George Ronald, writer, director for CBC Close-up, was present to record the meeting, which will be shown on CBC Close Up program in the future.

Tony Patera of Frank, acted as chairman of the meeting and called on Walter Makowicki of Calgary, Provincial Organizer, and leader of the Communist party, to introduce Mr. Buck.

After expressing his pleasure at returning to the Pass, Mr. Buck expressed his disapproval of Canadian resources being sold out.

He advocated that action should be taken by Canadians to stop the export of our raw materials to other countries, stating that the factories to utilize raw materials and turn them into finished products should be built in Canada to give our Canadian people jobs.

He also stressed the importance of Canada considering an export policy that would allow export of our goods to any country that needs and wishes to purchase our goods.

He stated that the government should consider a policy of using Canadian mined coal rather than United States coal even if our product cost a little more to produce in order that much of our unemployment be done away with. He mentioned that he had predicted the displacement of coal by oil-fired steam locomotives in the 1930's, and was of the opinion that John L. Lewis should have taken action to start a research into the future use of coal.

He felt that coal would make a definite comeback as the coal was vitally important in the production of steel and for producing many chemicals.

He felt that it was "crazy" for Canadians to ship iron ore and coking coal to Japan, who in turn make products out of the raw materials and then resell the goods to Canadians. Why not build the factories here, he said, and employ our own men?

Mr. Buck expressed his disapproval and rapped the heads of District 18 and other districts for having lifted the charter out of small locals when the coal mines in these areas shut down. He was of the opinion that after having bled the locals for millions of dollars after 50-year periods, it was not right for the districts to simply walk in and lift the charters. He said that the miners' unions had paved the way for many present day unions including the car manufacturers, railway and other unions and smaller locals should never be dissolved.

Following Mr. Buck's address a question period was held when many questions asked were answered. A collection was taken to defray the expense of the hall.

Transfer Control of Cowley Airport

Dr. Lawrence E. Kindt, Member of Parliament for the Macleod riding has been advised that an Order-in-Council has been passed by the Federal government authorizing transfer of control of the Cowley airport to the province of Alberta.

The matter is now with the provincial authorities to process the required Order-in-Council to cover the acceptance of this transfer.

The province requested transfer of the Cowley airport because the provincial Department of Lands and Forests wishes to use the installation in connection with forest protection and fire prevention.

This is a transfer and not a sale and has been made subject to the province agreeing to maintain the land, buildings and facilities as a public airport and it is agreed that the installation will be returned to the Federal government when no longer used for the purpose indicated.

The province of Alberta administers the natural resources and is, therefore, responsible for forest fire protection but the Federal government, through the Department of Forestry, has undertaken to pay one-half the cost of certain forestry expenditures.

Federal aid for all provincial forestry work in Canada is being increased for the year 1962-63 to a maximum of $7,917,000; Alberta share will be approximately $1,000,000. In Alberta a single agreement is being worked out to provide within this ceiling for sharing the cost of all approved forestry activities. This would be on a fifty-fifty basis, except in the case of reforestation where a different formula is to be used. The management of the program and disbursement of funds will be under the direction of the province of Alberta.

Site Purchased For New R.C.M.P. Radio Shelter

Dr. Lawrence E. Kindt, the Member of Parliament for the Macleod riding announced today that he had received word from the Hon. Davie Fulton, Minister of Justice, that approval has been given for the purchase of a site for the location of a new R.C.M.P. radio shelter which will house radio repeater equipment.

This equipment will provide extended radio coverage in Clarksburg District for R.C.M.P. mobile units.

This is in line with the policy followed during the past few years of a gradual change-over to 155 mcs. for mobile operations in the Prairie Provinces.

Construction of the radio shelter will take place in the fiscal year 1962-63. The estimate cost of the shelter and equipment is $12,000. The site, located approximately miles north east of Clarksburg, was purchased from Mrs. Emilie Markle of Clarksburg or the price of $300.00.

Anglican Newspaper Attacks Parochial Spending

TORONTO, Ont. — Are Canadian church-goers, and Anglicans, in particular, forgetting their full responsibility as Christians?

The Canadian Churchman, organ of the Anglican Church of Canada, believes that parochial expenditures are out of line with the money given to support the church's missionary educational and social service programs.

"As the time of the annual congregational meetings draws near one cannot help but notice the number of parishes which will again be marking off their progress in terms of their own comfort and convenience," the Canadian Churchman says editorially. "In general in North America, this yearly advance has become the scandal of Christianity."

The editorial says that new church buildings are necessary in rapidly expanding urban areas and Christian education facilities are also important. It continues:

"But there comes a time when the line must be drawn. There is a border between necessity and self-indulgence and when that border has been crossed the mission of the Church of God takes a secondary place, and the worship of the Household of God becomes a hollow mockery."

The Canadian Churchman says there is need for "a healthy NO" in response to some proposals for parish improvements coming before congregations.

"Padded kneelers, curtains and parking lots, not to mention kitchens, parlors, landscaping, outside lighting and what have you. The list can be long, but so is the list from our Lord. In our Anglican Church of Canada the needs of His list can be met through the Department of Missions, the Primate's World Relief Fund and the Anglican Foundation of Canada. At the local level there are senior citizens' programs, unemployment programs, underprivileged and undernourished children to be cared for, as well as investment in new and exciting ways of communicating the good news that God cares for man to the hundreds of thousands of people in your community who do not realize it. "Let's not throw good money after bad. We already have more holy hardware and software than we know what to do with. Let's make 1962 the year that the Anglican Church of Canada awakened fully to human need — God's missions." The Churchman admonishes

Canadian Pharmcut. Speakers Service

TORONTO, Ont. — Announcement is made by the Canadian Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association of the establishment of a Speaker's Service, which will provide top level speakers for business organizations and associations, service clubs, consumer associations and allied groups.

Purpose of this service is to carry the story of pharmacy to lay groups across the country.

The speakers have been selected from within the industry and the service is free to all adult clubs with no fee charged for either the speaker's time nor for travelling expenses.

The speakers will address interested groups on the pharmaceutical industry, the cost of drugs, the story behind the prescription and other related topics.

In view of the considerable interest evinced currently in drugs and drug costs the Association believes that many lay groups would be interested in being informed about this industry.

Organizations interested in having a speaker are requested to write to Speaker's Service, Canadian Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association, 37, King Street, East, Toronto 1, Ontario.

Insurmountable problem

After a week of tipping doors, bell boys, waiters, hotel check girls, ad infinitum, an hotel guest was completely fed up with the whole system. Then came a knock on his door. "Who is it?" he called. "The bell boy, sir. Telegram for you."

A crafty gleam came into the eyes of the tip-tortured guest. "Just slip it under the door," he directed.

Barely a moment's hesitation, then, "can't, sir." "And why not?" snarled the unhappy guest.

"Because, sir," answered the determined bell boy, "it's on a tray!"

Taber Defeats Coleman 1 to 0

Taber Chiefs defeated the Coleman Grands in Taber on Wednesday by a 1-0 score to hold hopes of a playoff berth in the Big Six League.

Taber outplayed the Grands all the way and deserved their win according to reports from Taber. On Tuesday, February 27, the Grands will again travel to Taber to meet the Chiefs in the first game of the provincial playoffs.

The Grands will have to do much better if they hope to defeat the Chiefs who beat Coleman out last year in the playoffs.

Second game of the provincial playoffs will be played in Coleman on Thursday, March 1st.

This series is a three-out-of-five affair.

Third game will be played in Taber on Tuesday, March 6 and should Taber not win three straight or three out of four games there will be a further game No. 4 in Coleman on Thursday, March 8th and again in Coleman on Saturday, March 10th.

There is no favorite to take this series. Should there be a slight favorite, it probably will be Taber who of late have been knocking off every team in sight, including Coleman and Adderson.

This reporter feels the only chance Coleman Grands will have is if the Crows Nest Pass hockey fans get busy and come out to root for the Grands as they play inspired hockey when a large crowd is behind them.

Remember the Taber Chiefs beat Coleman Grands the last time in the provincial playoffs when no one thought it possible.

This certainly will be a bang up series.

Scout and Cub News

A general meeting of the Group committee to the Lions Scout and Cubs of Coleman was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Colwell.

Chairman J. Colwell welcomed Mr. L. Blair of Pincher Creek, and wives of committee members.

Following this the meeting heard the reading of the minutes. Reports from Cubmaster were very encouraging and the Scoutmaster reported good headway with both groups advancing to higher levels.

The bottle drive showed a grand total of $149.46 collected and the treasurer's report was read.

Boy Scout Week was discussed and a number of commemorative items were planned.

The Cub Packs were looking for uniforms and asked anyone who had uniforms not in use, to get in touch with their leaders, Mrs. Irene Ondrus, Mrs. Helen Dousak, Mrs. Doreen Colwell or Mrs. Isabel Spiveak.

A Scout or Cub must be in full uniform for special occasions and in uniform, but with jeans, for meetings.

A tea is planned by the Boy Scouts for sometime in April and Cub Pack No. 2 wish to announce a tea and candy sale on March 10 to be held in the United Church club room. Admissions 30c.

After the meeting lunch was served.

Elks Name Bingo Winners

Winners of prizes at the Coleman Elks bingo night, Friday,

Okotoks Oilers by a score of 5 to 3 at the Coleman arena on Saturday, February 24th, before one of the smallest and most disappointing crowds of the season.

Okotoks took a fast two-goal lead in the thrill-packed game which was one of the fastest games played in this year and the first period ended Oilers 2, Coleman 0.

In the second period the Grands old "Rocket" Jerry Scodellaro dazzled the fans with his fancy skating and tricky hockey.

He combined with the fast skating Dick Koentges to score two quick goals and put the Grands back in the hockey game.

Scodellaro scored at 1:05 and 4:48 with Koentges getting assists on both goals. Then silent Barry Fraser, playing his best game of the year, matched Scodellaro by scoring two more fast goals at 10:20 and 12:20 with the Rocket getting assists on both of Fraser's goals.

The period ended Coleman 4, Okotoks 2.

In the third period the 29-year-old veteran coach and manager of the Grands, namely Ken Head, whistled one past goalie Watson in the Okotoks net to finish the scoring in the game and making it 3-2 for Coleman.

Scodellaro again assisted on Head's goal. The Rocket obtained five points on the five goals scored by Coleman, getting two goals and three assists.

Shots on goal, by Okotoks, 27; by Coleman, 33. Other standouts for Coleman were Fred Churis, Ron Yanosik and Cuth in goal.

New Arrangements For Shipments Cool To Japan

I am now in a position to report to you on plans for coal shipments to Japan. This report is being made available to others in the Macleod Riding outside the Crows Nest Pass so that all may be informed. Here are the facts:

The commitments for the fiscal year starting April 1, 1962, is to pay a subvention up to $3.50 per ton, if experience shows it is needed. It does not follow that the full amount will be paid, but only if needed.

Maximum shipment on which the subvention applies is 700,000 short tons, of which 550,000 long tons are to be shipped from the Crows Nest Pass, and the balance from Cammore.

About $2,000,000 in subvention will probably be paid on coal shipped from the Crows Nest Pass. The detailed plans were worked out by federal authorities with the help of coal operators and representatives of the United Mine Workers. All agree that coal shipments to Japan have been of tremendous benefit to the people and the economy of the Crows Nest Pass.

Coal Shipments to Japan:

Yr.	short tons	s'vention
1957-58	43,833	$ 83,221
1958-59	27,847	100,488
1959-60	263,542	1,168,700
1960-61	677,396	3,048,283
1961-62	700,000	3,150,000
1962-63	700,000	2,450,000

(* estimate).
Five years ago the Crows Nest Pass was in a dreadfully depressed condition, and to make matters worse, the Ottawa Liberal government in power at that time had done little or nothing to open new markets for coal.

Further, the Social Credit member of parliament of that time, not being on the side of the government, was not in a position to know what was going on or do anything about it.

It was not until the Progressive Conservative government came in to power at the June election of 1957 that positive action was taken. The federal cabinet supported my recommendations and Japanese coal shipments started rolling, as indicated in the above Table.

The Crows Nest Pass is in a different position today. The outlook is good for coal shipments to Japan and possibly markets will open in Western United States, which I am now working on.

Although my duty as your member of parliament make it necessary for me to spend most of my time in Ottawa working on legislation and numerous agricultural, industrial and other constituency problems, I shall be looking forward to seeing you from time to time when I am back in our riding. In the meantime, with very best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely,
Lawrence E. Kindt, M.P.,
Macleod Constituency.

Responsible government

What is Responsible Government—Under responsible government, the executive depends for its right to remain in office on the continuing support of a majority of the elected legislature and must defend their actions and policies from their places in the legislature.

A cabinet is held collectively responsible for policy and a defeat on a vote in the legislature implies that it has lost the confidence of that body and, as a rule, must make way for a cabinet capable of holding a legislative majority.

Between 1848 and 1855 all the British colonies now part of the Dominion achieved responsible government—Nova Scotia and the province of Canada (Upper and Lower Canada) in 1848, Prince Edward Island in 1851, New Brunswick in 1854 and Newfoundland in 1855.
